

COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES

The COLLEGES and UNIVERSITIES sections provide detailed information about publicly funded colleges and universities in Ontario. Students can find specific information about the resources available at each school and how to access them.

EASILY FIND THE FOLLOWING INFO FOR EACH INSTITUTION:

- General and disability specific services available
- Academic and accessibility services
- Residence, campus and transit info
- Contact information for all offices and services

Everything you need to know about accessibility and other essential resources across all 44 publicly funded Ontario post-secondary schools

The Transition Resource Guide was created by The Regional Assessment and Resource Centre (RARC) at Queen's University.

For information about the Transition Resource Guide or RARC, please visit www.transitionresourceguide.ca and www.queensu.ca/rarc, or contact the support team at rarctrq@queensu.ca

 @RARC_TRG
 @QUEENSRARC
 @TRANSITIONRESOURCEGUIDE

Funding provided by Ontario

THINKING ABOUT POST-SECONDARY?

WWW.TRANSITIONRESOURCEGUIDE.CA

DISABILITIES

The DISABILITIES section provides information about specific disabilities, such as learning disabilities, ADHD, Autism Spectrum Disorder, mental health disorders, and their impact in the post-secondary setting.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Common concerns and struggles
- Possible academic accommodations and support services
- A listing of community support services

RESOURCES

The RESOURCES section provides information that is general to all colleges and universities in Ontario. Students can use this information to learn about what to expect at post-secondary and how disabilities are accommodated.

LEARN ABOUT:

- Regulations that govern special education at post-secondary
- Pros and cons of disclosure
- Registering with Accessibility Services
- Documentation requirements, financial information
- Disability support services available, including transition programs and learning strategies
- Checklists to review and compare schools and services

